Decades after the melting of the ice caps, a mysterious girl named Eve awakes in secret and must face a world that's nothing like the virtual reality she was raised in.

This Compact Comics edition collects Eve's entire apocalyptic ecological saga in one value-priced volume!

What world have we left our children?

When the ice caps melted, most of humanity was lost to the hidden disease that was released. The survivors retreat to a virtual reality—that is, until Eve wakes up.

Thus begins Eve, a groundbreaking comics series from an award-winning novelist. In order to save her father and accompanied only by her robotic caretaker sheathed in her favorite teddy bear, Eve must embark on a deadly quest across the country. Along the way, she will have to contend not only with the threats of a very real world that await her, but the lies we tell our children in the name of protecting them.

And in Eve: Children of the Moon, Eve and Wexler must contend with a group of survivors that do not follow Eve's message. The conflict amongst them is dire... even sowing the potential for civil war. But an A.I. with terrifying origins brings new revelations about the threats they face... not only from Earth, but beyond.

Award-winning novelist Victor LaValle (The Changeling, The Ballad of Black Tom, Victor LaValle's Destroyer) and illustrator Jo Mi-Gyeong (The Dark Crystal: Age of Resistance) deliver a powerful dystopian adventure about the price that must be paid to restore life on a dying planet.

Collects Eve #1-5 and Eve: Children of the Moon #1-5.
